"Motorhomes offer state of the art facilities to make your holiday a safe and comfortable one within a real 'live-in' environment, whereas campervans still offer comfort, but are smaller and have more basic facilities," explains Matters.

"Depending on your budget and requirements, you can book and pick up at any location, a 2 Berth campervan, complete with linen and cutlery, for as little as $35 a day. Alternatively, a high quality six berth motorhome that accommodates six people and comes fitted with double beds, a gas cooker, air conditioning, a shower and TV and DVD players can be hired for $90 a day. "He says
